SUBJECT: PAUL DAVID MEMMO

Dear Dave:

Thanks so much for the article which indicated that Mr. Memmo was sentenced to prison. This is most helpful in completing our file.

Mr. Memmo was placed on our Ineligible file in 1983 for a problem of the same type. Apparently, he then got himself re-involved with various youth, and now again has been in trouble.

We hope he never again attempts registration with the Boy Scouts of America. We will do our best to keep him from becoming associated in any way.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director
Registration and Statistical Service

sentenced in molestations

By Lyn A.E. McCafferty
Special to The Inquirer

A Newtown Square man yesterday was sentenced to 16½ to 37 years in prison for sexually molesting nine Delaware County boys.

Paul David Memmo, 31, of the 300 block of First Avenue, showed no emotion as County Judge Charles C. Keeler handed down the sentence after hearing from parents of several of the victims.

"He didn't just molest bodies, he molested souls," said the mother of a 12-year-old Ridley Township victim.

The mother of an 8-year-old Ridley Township victim told the court that Memmo had taken her son away from her.

"He has taken their whole lives," the mother said. "We can never bring back their innocence or youth."

In explaining his sentence, Keeler said, "My paramount concern is the protection of society."

Defense attorney Francis A. Holloran Jr. had urged that Memmo be hospitalized for long-term psychiatric treatment.

"This is not a monster, he is a sick young man," Holloran said. "Paul Memmo is not a lost cause — he can be treated."

In May, Memmo pleaded guilty to 20 sex offenses, including involuntary deviant sexual intercourse, sexual abuse of children and indecent assault.

In pleading guilty, Memmo acknowledged that he had molested the nine boys, ages 9 to 14, between January 1986 and May 1990. The victims were boys he befriended. In many cases, Memmo falsely told the boys' parents that he was affiliated with the Big Brother organization.

According to Deputy District Attorney A. Sheldon Kovach, most victims came from broken homes.

"Memmo gained the trust of nearly all of their parents," Kovach said. "He was a surrogate parent — a lot of them felt as betrayed as the kids."

In each case Memmo would initially take the boys out to participate in legitimate recreational activities.

However, as he gained their confidence, he brought them to his home and showed them pornographic movies. For money or favors, the boys were encouraged to participate in sex acts.

"Memmo used suggestion, encouragement and seduction to coerce the boys into sexual acts," Kovach said.

Delco man, 30, is charged in sex abuse of 8 more boys

After a preliminary hearing in Crum Lynne District Court on Wednesday on the alleged sexual assault of two boys, Paul David Memmo, 30, of the 300 block of First Avenue, Newtown Square, was charged with sexually abusing eight more boys.

A preliminary hearing is scheduled for next Wednesday on the additional charges that include involuntary deviate sexual intercourse, sexual abuse of children, indecent assault and corruption of minors. Two of the boys were abused sexually, according to court records, and the others were involved in viewing or posing for obscene material. The incidents allegedly occurred in Memmo's former apartments in Upper Darby, Ridley Park and Media from 1986 to 1988.

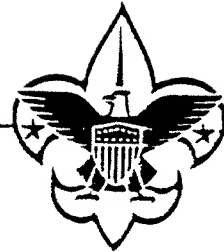

Memmo was ordered to stand trial in the assaults of the two boys and was returned to Delaware County Prison, where he is being held on $400,000 bail.

Dear Paul:

I received a telephone call on December 3, 1990, from Lt. Bucci with the District Attorney General's office in Delaware County, PA, (telephone # 215-891-4700) trying to find out if a Paul Memmo was registered or working with the BSA in this area. Lt. Bucci told me that Mr. Memmo had been convicted of molesting kids in 1983 in the Valley Forge Council. He lived around the Newtown Square (PA) area, and they thought he was associated with a family in or around the Colony Blvd. area of Wilmington and the University of Delaware.

We ran Paul Memmo's name through the computer and he is not registered in the Del-Mar-Va Council. At present we are trying to find out if he has offered to "help" any of our units in the area.

Regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Greey,

This is to inform you that the Newtown Township Police Department has arrested Paul Memmo of 304 First Avenue, Newtown Square on the following charges: Corruption of the Morals of Minors, Indecent Assault, Indecent Exposure, Criminal Solicitation and Having Obscene and Sexual Material.

The arrest took place due to a Complaint from Scout Troop 238 in Broomall, Pa. He is charged on 3 counts of each of the above. He was arrested June 8, 1983 and was arraigned. He is now incarcerated in the Delaware County Prison in lieu of $52,500 bail for a Hearing on June 16, 1983 before District Justice Malone. We have taken statements from Mr. Mammeo to indicate his guilt.

If you have any further questions please contact me at 356-0603.

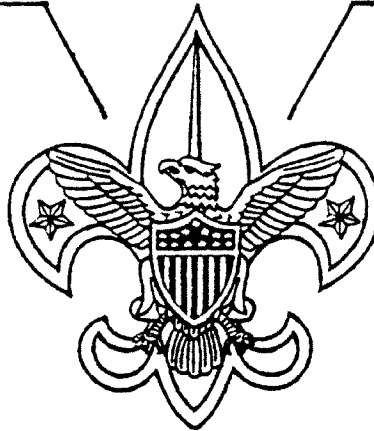

Truly yours,

STANLEY R. SHORT

Dear Mr. Greey:

Attached is a copy of my letter to Mr. Paul Memmo, dated May 26, 1983. As of June 1, 1983, neither I nor Mr. [REDACTED] have received a response from Mr. Memmo. Therefore, effective May 31, 1983, Mr. Memmo was expelled from Troop 238 by action of the Troop Committee.

It is the opinion of the Troop Committee that Mr. Memmo's actions are contrary to the intent and purpose of Scouting and warrant the appropriate actions, similar to those taken by the Committee, on both the Valley Forge Council and National Boy Scouts of America level. Please consider this letter a request of Troop 238 to initiate such action.

If I can be of any assistance or provide additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Mr. Paul Memmo
307 First Avenue

Dear Mr. Memmo:

Recent events involving your actions have been brought to the attention of the Troop Committee of Troop 238. It is the unanimous determination of the members of the Committee that these actions are contrary to the intent and purpose of Scouting and definitely not in the best interests of the members of Troop 238.

Therefore, on behalf of the Troop Committee, I am requesting your immediate resignation from Troop 238, effective the date of receipt of this letter. Should your response to this request not be received by me or Mr. [REDACTED], on or before May 31, 1983, the Committee has authorized your expulsion from the Troop, effective May 31, 1983.

While we seriously regret this action, we believe it to be imperative and in the best interest of Scouting.

For the Troop Committee of Troop 238
